

SOULFUL IMPRESSIONS

Photographer Phil Dizon will have an exhibit in New York this July.

BY THOMAS GOLDSMITH

Renowned Filipino photographer Phil Dizon will bring his unique photographic style to the Philippine Consulate General in New York in an exhibition running from July 5 to 15, 2016. Titled Philippine Faces and Places, the show will provide an in-depth look at Filipino culture through portraits of influential Filipinos. Included in the portrait series are business executives, government officials, beauty queens, artists, and prominent advocates of Philippine culture. Also featured are breathtaking photos of local scenery, showcasing why the Philippines is considered paradise on earth.

Phil Dizon is based in Manila, but his work has taken him across the globe, including studying Photography at the prestigious University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA). His main inspirations are derived from the natural scenery and people of the Philippines.

LIVING ON WATER.

(FROM TOP) "Fisherman at Chadpidan Boulder Beach, Basco, Batanes"; "Boatman, Pagsanjan".

LOCAL COLOR.

(CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT) "Sinulog, Cebu"; "Acuzar"; "Saddle Race, Panagbenga, Wright Park, Baguio"; "Tayid Lighthouse in Mahatao Town, Batanes".

